The Hon. Director General of Police
Kerala State

5.2.2014

Sir,

CHEATING CASE

- Ref:-
1. Report of Attipra Village Officer dtd. 1.2.2013 submitted before the Hon. Kerala Lok Ayukta, Trivandrum.
  2. The document.
  3. No.31/RTI Act/2012 TPS dated 17.2.2012.
  4. Order of State Information Commission.

I have the honor to request that, my application may please be considered for an immediate action.

Mr. Gurukumar of Gokulam, Poundkadavu has encroached a portion of Government land (now worth lakhs of Rupees) and constructed a Gurumandiram without the permission from Panchayath/Corporation. (Ref.1 states that the land belongs to the Government).

He is in possession of a document (Ref.2) which is not registered. The public and Police are being cheated in the shield of this document.

The keys of Gurumandiram have been taken in the custody of Thumba Police on 23.1.2012 (Ref. 3) and given back with the involvement of corruption (Ref.4).

This gurumandiram premise became a place of nuisance using loudspeakers and was also a resting place for drunkards and a safe place to hide illegal liquor bought for sales in a nearby colony. At present all these activities are brought under control after submitting numerous complaints continuously to the Police.

Now it is humbly requested that, an action against Mr. Gurukumar is taken, if the document he possess falls under the forged category. And he vacate and surrender the property immediately to the concerned authority if he cannot register the land on his name in the concerned Registrar Office.

Yours truly,

(Subhash.S)
